

MARINES GIVE PLACE TO COAL

The Marine Corps at the Naval Station is to take up tent life. It must give place to coal.

For several years the marines have been quartered in barracks fitted up in one end of the great coal shed which was built, nine years ago during the war with Spain, when troops were being rushed to the Philippines, and the Pacific had a big fleet of transports calling at this port to coal.

When the United States ceased to keep such a large stock of coal here, some of the sheds became empty, and with the establishment of a marine corps at this naval station, barracks were fitted up, and these have been the home of the marines ever since they first came to this station.

Now that Uncle Sam proposes to again keep a large stock of coal in Honolulu, to supply the fleet of battleships and cruisers which are to be despatched in this part of the Pacific, there is need of the coal sheds again, and the marines must move out.

Tents will be provided and will no doubt be fitted up so as to be very comfortable. The troops at Camp McKinley or some of them, lived under canvas throughout the existence of that camp as an army post.

As an earnest of the coal that is coming for the United States it may be said that four sailing vessels are now actually on their way from the Atlantic seaboard with coal for the United States at this port. Three of them are, the ship Bangalore, with 2600 tons; the ship Edward Sewall, with 5000 tons; and the Dirigo, with 5000 tons.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS FOR MOLOKAI SETTLEMENT

Electric lights and electric power at the leper settlement on Molokai are among the possibilities of the near future. The water pipe which arrived by the Nebraskan for the new water system there, and which will be sent to the settlement as soon as possible, will furnish the means by which this can be accomplished.

The pipe is of sufficient size to bring a sufficient body of water to furnish power for electricity. The source of the water is Waikolu gulch. The supply is abundant and perennial. It can be brought to the location of the present reservoir on the ridge between the two villages of Kalaupapa and Kalahele. This will give fall enough to develop all the power that is needed to furnish light for the whole settlement.

The power if developed can be utilized for an ice plant if one is provided or to furnish cold storage for the settlement, and power for the paint factory and for the laundry.

CHANGES ON NEBRASKAN.

Captains Bolles and Bulger made an inspection of the American-Hawaiian S. S. Nebraskan during the past two days and ordered some minor alterations made in the below-decks arrangements.

FOUNDED IN HONOUR.

No doubt you have seen in the papers such announcements as this concerning some medicine or other: "If, on trial, you write that this medicine has done you no good we will refund your money." Now, we have never had reason to speak in that way concerning the remedy named in this article. In a trade extending throughout the world, nobody has ever complained that our medicine has failed, or asked for the return of his money. The public never grumbles at honestly and skillfully made bread, or at a medicine which really and actually does what it was made to do. The foundations of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION are laid in sincerity and honour, the knowledge of which on the part of the people explains its popularity and success. There is nothing to disguise or conceal. It was not dreamed out, or discovered by accident; it was studied out, on the solid principles of applied medical science. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. This remedy is praised by all who have employed it in any of the diseases it is recommended to relieve and cure, and is effective from the first dose. In Anemia, Scrofula, Nervous and General Debility, Influenza, La Grippe, and Throat and Lung Troubles, it is a specific. Dr. Thos. Hunt Stucky says: "The continued use of it in my practice, convinces me that it is the most palatable, least nauseating, and best preparation now on the market." You can take it with the assurance of getting well. One bottle proves its intrinsic value. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by all chemists everywhere.

INDIANA WILL COME AGAIN

(From Saturday's Advertiser.)

"I think it is altogether likely that the charterers of the Indiana will take advantage of their option on the steamer to bring her here again for the second trip," said Attorney A. V. Gear yesterday, after he had been aboard that vessel and held a consultation with her captain. "There has been no difficulty in getting passengers enough for her for this trip."

It is Mr. Gear's name that is signed to the charter of the Indiana, not that of Fred Makino, as has been supposed and given out. At least this is what was stated yesterday by Captain John Barneson in explaining the position of the owners of the vessel in taking away Hawaiian Japanese.

"We were paid a lump sum for the charter of the Indiana," he said, and what her charterers want to do with her is none of our affair. Mr. Gear, who signed the charter for those who paid the company, is giving us instructions and we are carrying them out."

Captain Barneson, who arrived in Honolulu with his family on the S. S. Siberia, is not only the bigger part of the Barneson-Hibberd company, in whose fleet the Indiana belongs, but is individually the owner of three-tenths of the steamer, the company owning six-tenths. He is proud of the liner and inclined to resent a little the fact that her arrival here is not looked upon as an unmixed blessing.

"A good proportion of these Japanese intend to leave Hawaii anyway," he said, "and once they get restless they will get out, if not by the Indiana then by some other ship."

Fred Makino, who is looking after the emigrant end of the Indiana passenger list, is quoted as saying that enough Japanese emigrants are ready now to board the steamer to take up all the available accommodations in the steerage. These are ready to go aboard now and will probably move in and locate in the Indiana today or tomorrow. No trouble of any kind is expected either here or at the Vancouver end of the trip. The vessel came down in ballast and brought no passengers.

JAPANESE CAUGHT PASSING QUEER MONEY

(By Wireless Telegraph.)

HILO, August 2.—A Japanese has been arrested at Waimea for an attempt to pass a spurious gold ten dollar piece. He says it was paid him at Hamakua by a cane contractor.

Marshal Hendry took the three Koreans, arrested on a charge of counterfeiting, before Commissioner Furneaux, who committed them.

WITNESSES OF COOK'S DEATH

Editor Friend:—An interesting testimony is given in the Sydney Morning Herald of June 26, by one Captain Samuel Charles, who in March, 1850, interviewed at Kealahakua an aged man who had witnessed the death of Capt. James Cook, seventy-one years previous.

This is especially interesting to myself, because in my childhood, while living at Kailua, I was familiarly acquainted with the aged Kekupohi, who stood close to Cook when he fell. She was then a youthful wife of the King Kalaupapa, or "Terrebonne," whom Cook had arrogantly arrested, and was leading by the hand to his boat, intending to detain him as a hostage on board of his ship, until satisfaction should be given for the theft of a boat. The exasperated chiefs killed Cook at the water's edge.

I often saw the spot when a child, and was born in a house twenty rods north thereof in February, 1827. Kekupohi lived not far from the Bishop house in Kailua, and only a short distance south from the stone church, which was built in 1836, the year in which the Bishops removed to Ewa, Oahu. I was then nine years old, and have a more distinct recollection of Kekupohi than of perhaps any other Hawaiian of Kailua.

She must then have been nearly eighty years of age, but was not very infirm. Her face was to a child, a rather pleasant and comely one. I have the strongest impression of a certain beauty in the fine wrinkles which covered the whole of her features.

All the facts relating to the death of Capt. Cook were carefully and thoroughly investigated by the earlier missionaries, while many vigorous and intelligent natives were still surviving who were eye-witnesses. Those facts are well summed up in Alexander's History, and accord substantially with the journals of Ledyard and Dr. Ellis. Messrs. Thurston, Ruggles and Bishop lived near the spot, and were all extremely intimate with the native people.

The chief and governing fact in that most singular series of incidents, was the people's worshipping of Capt. Cook as their God Lono, and consecrating to him a heiau, or temple.

PEARL HARBOR INSPECTED

(From Saturday's Advertiser.)

Secretary and Mrs. Straus, Congressman and Mrs. Longworth, Mr. Straus Jr., Governor and Mrs. Carter, Chief Justice Frear, Associate Justice Hartwell, Secretary Atkinson and many others, were guests of Admiral Very yesterday for a trip to Pearl Harbor on the U. S. S. Iroquois, Captain Carter. The vessel started from the Naval wharf about 10 o'clock after a salute of seventeen guns had been fired in honor of the Secretary and the marine guard had presented arms.

The journey to Pearl Harbor was over a pleasant sea. After introductions of the Honolulu people to the distinguished guests had been made, two large charts of Pearl Harbor and its approaches, which hung from the upper framework of the Iroquois, were explained by Admiral Very. The Admiral showed the needs of the harbor, the bearing of its development would have on commerce and naval convenience and pointed out the special objects of interest. Mr. Straus was deeply attentive and called his secretary to take notes. Mr. Longworth also familiarized himself with the geography of the plan.

As the Iroquois steamed into the beautiful lochs, Secretary Straus said that the harbor and the country about it were finer in every way than he had anticipated. "I have traveled much," he said, "and know the spell of the Orient, but anything like this I have never before seen. It is my first glimpse of the actual tropics. You must enjoy life here. We had been warned against the heat and mosquitoes and have found neither. Mrs. Straus says she is sorry we can't stay longer and I feel that way too."

"We hope you will come back, some time, Mr. Secretary," was remarked. "I don't see how we can stay away," he answered.

The Longworths were equally charmed with the trip. With the President's daughter and Mrs. Straus, were Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mrs. George Davies and Mrs. George R. Carter. At the peninsula Mrs. F. M. Hatch came on board. Luncheon for the party had been sent to the Iroquois from the University Club and had been reinforced by a chowder made on board. It was served on the after deck. Besides the chowder were roast chicken, lobster salad, three kinds of sandwiches and hard-boiled eggs.

After luncheon the visiting notables and some of their hosts made an automobile run to Wahiawa and Haleiwa, returning late in the afternoon. Some of the voyagers went back to Honolulu by train, the rest returning to town on the Iroquois, arriving at 3:30 o'clock.

Those present were Secretary of Commerce and Labor O. S. Straus, Mrs. Straus and Master Straus and Secretary Straus' secretary, Mr. Weed; Congressman Nicholas Longworth and his wife, Alice Roosevelt Longworth; Admiral Very, Governor and Mrs. G. R. Carter, Secretary of the Territory A. L. C. Atkinson, Justice Hartwell, Surgeon-in-Chief Cofer, U. S. M. H. Service; Major Dunning, U. S. A.; U. S. District Attorney R. W. Breckons, Collector of Customs E. R. Stackable, Inspector-in-Chief of Immigration R. C. Brown, Prince David Kawanakakoa, Captain Otwell, U. S. A.; George and Mrs. Davies, Chief Justice Frear, B. F. Dillingham, Walter Dillingham, Water G. Smith, F. L. Hoogs, W. R. Farrington, W. O. Smith, M. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Ivers, Professor Scott, F. M. Hatch, W. G. Irwin, Jared G. Smith, Col. Samuel Parker, Senator J. C. Lane, J. J. Carden, J. H. Craig, C. M. Cooke.

SCULPTOR HUTCHINSON IN CONSULAR SERVICE

Allen Hutchinson, sculptor, who lived here some years ago, is now located at San Diego, Cal., as British vice consul. It may be mentioned that Mr. Hutchinson's father, the Rev. Prebendary Hutchinson of Burton, North Staffordshire, is actively engaged in his ministerial work at the age of 96, was the last royal governor of Massachusetts, was Allen Hutchinson's direct ancestor.

Mr. Hutchinson while here made the models of ancient Hawaiian life which are in the Bishop Museum, also a bust of King Kalakaua for the Kalakaua Monument Association, and executed many private orders including busts from life of William Auld, Judge McCully and Robert Louis Stevenson, now all deceased. He was engaged in modeling in the palace on July 30, 1859, while the premises were invested by Wilcox and his followers and made his escape at considerable risk after bullets had begun popping through the windows.

AUSTRALIAN MAIL.

A telegram in the London Times says: "Messrs. Andrew Weir & Co., shipowners, of London & Glasgow, are about to start a new mail steamship service between San Francisco and Australasia to take the place of the American Oceanic Line, which recently ceased operations in consequence of the failure of Congress to pass the ship subsidy bill. The service will start on August 1. The sailings will be monthly, and to enable mails to be dispatched twice a month the present route via Vancouver will also be employed. By the new route the boats will take only thirty days to Sydney."

RAW VEAL AND SQUASH.

Governor Hughes of New York in his Jamestown speech said: "There are those who speak the language of conservatism, but whose underlying purpose only thinly veiled is to protect those who have betrayed the public and to prevent necessary remedial action."

People of Hawaii reading this sentence realize immediately how exactly and nicely it fits the self-seeking, prejudicial and hypocritical section of the Territory for which the Advertiser daily rousts about.—Bulletin.

JUDGMENT HAS BEEN ENTERED

(From Wednesday's Advertiser.)

Judge De Bolt yesterday signed judgment in favor of William O. Smith and A. Lewis Jr. against Territory Stables Co., Ltd., for a total amount of $1250.75, including attorney's commission and costs. The Bank of Hawaii, Ltd., garnishee, is ordered to pay into court $378.62, being the defendant's credit in its hands at the time of service of garnishment.

FAILURE TO PROVIDE.

Hallaka Lum Fai brings a libel in divorce against Lum Fai, to whom she was married on April 19, 1905. She alleges that he has violated his marriage vows, in particular in that he has failed, since September 2, 1905, to provide suitable maintenance for her. She says he is a butcher by trade and, as she is informed, has an income of $50 a month. Besides an absolute divorce she prays for permanent alimony and, pending a decision, that libel be ordered to pay her court costs, an attorney's fee and $10 a week alimony.

FLINT DIVORCE CASE.

Daisy Flint, who has retained S. F. Chillingworth as her attorney, prays that Harry Flint, suing her for divorce, be compelled to pay her $5 a week as temporary alimony and $50 attorney's fee. In her affidavit she says "that she has been for some months without assistance or support of her husband, and is wholly destitute of means of support or money to procure legal assistance; that she has truthfully stated the facts of her case to an attorney, and that he assures her that she has a good and legal defense to said libel."

MINOR ATTAINS MAJORITY.

Judge De Bolt has discharged Maria K. Ena as guardian of Anna Delia Ena, a minor who has come of age. The sole property of the ward consists of an interest in the estate of her late father, John Ena, and that estate not having been distributed no part of it has come into the hands of the guardian.

SUIT AGAINST OAHU.

Geo. A. Davis for plaintiff has filed a joinder in demurrer in the suit of Mary Costa against the County of Oahu, a corporation, saying the complaint is good in substance.

WORK Laid OUT.

Jury waived cases have been set for trial in all of September and the first week of October.

THE SALVAGE HEARING.

Judge Dole yesterday was still hearing the testimony in the salvage suit of I. I. S. N. Co. v. British ship Loch Garve.

A BELGIAN DOCTOR A MOLOKAI VISITOR

Among the recent visitors to the leper settlement was Dr. Dekeyser, a representative of the Belgian Government. He was especially requested to visit the settlement if possible. The Belgian Government is especially interested in the settlement because most, if not all, of the priests and brothers in charge of churches and institutions at the settlement are Belgians by birth. Father Damien was a Belgian. Dr. Dekeyser, after his visit, said that the settlement, in the comfort and provision it made for the lepers, and in the generally cheerful and contented life which they led, was a revelation to him. He said he should report to his government that the generally-held belief of the dolor and suffering of the lepers and of daily martyrdoms to the horrors of the lazaretto of those who devote their lives to the care of the lepers is without foundation.

Dr. Dekeyser landed at Kaunakakai, and went across the island and over the steep path to the settlement.

DR. BRINCKERHOFF IS TO GO TO NEW YORK

Dr. Walter Brinckerhoff, who was sent here by the Marine Hospital Service to be at the head of the proposed leprosy investigating station on Molokai, will leave by the next Alameda for New York. He goes to attend the annual session of the American Dermatological Association which will be held from September 9 to September 16.

Dr. Brinckerhoff is detailed by the Marine Hospital Service to represent it at this gathering. While he is in the east he will go to Washington to confer with Surgeon General Wyman, and it may be that his visit will be productive of a hastening of the inauguration of the station at Molokai.

MR. SWANZY'S BROTHER RECEIVES KNIGHTHOOD

Dr. Henry R. Swanzy, vice president of the Royal College of Surgeons, Ireland, and president of the Ophthalmological Society of Great Britain, and who is a brother of F. M. Swanzy, the managing director of Theo. H. Davies & Co., Ltd., of this city, was amongst those who received the honor of knighthood on the occasion of King Edward's recent birthday. A portrait of Sir Henry Swanzy appears in a recent issue of the Illustrated London News.

SICKNESS COMES WHEN LEAST EXPECTED.

A little forethought may save you no end of trouble. Anyone who makes it a rule to keep Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand knows this to be a fact. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaii.

JOEL C. COHEN IS DEFAULTED

(From Sunday's Advertiser.)

Judgment by default was given in favor of John S. Ellis and against Joel C. Cohen by Judge De Bolt on Saturday morning. It was for $400.50 as balance due on contract in connection with the Hawaiian band's tour last summer. Ellis was to receive $52.50 a week and traveling expenses. The account came to over $700, on which credits ranging from twenty-five cents to $100 appeared on the claim. Other members of the band are likely now to pitch in for recovery of balances of wages due them. Cohen is absent on the Coast and made no defense to Ellis' suit.

THE ROBINSON MINORS.

M. P. Robinson, guardian of J. L. P. Mark A. and Allen C. Robinson, minors, has filed his final account with petition for discharge. He charges himself with $13,355.22 and asks to be allowed $1340, making a balance due the minors of $12,015.22. The inventory of securities and cash turned over by the guardian foot up $23,015.22. The guardianship was originally instituted to protect the minors as heirs of the late A. Campbell. In the meantime legacies of $500 each were left them by the late S. C. Allen. Credits of interest on income in the final account amount to a tidy sum.

COURT ITEMS.

In the foreclosure suit of James D. McNerny v. Kahola, Hahaione, Antone Telexira and John Thomas it is stipulated that two minor heirs of Kahola, who has died, may be substituted for her as parties defendant so that the cause may not abate.

Judgment of Honolulu District Court in favor of Gilbert J. Waller and against R. W. Holt in the sum of $253.12 has been docketed in the office of the clerk of the First Circuit Court.

Testimony in the Loch Garve salvage case was still being read to Judge Dole in the Federal Court on Saturday.

L. Ah Pau enters a general denial to the complaint of Oahu Lumber Co.

LIFE SENTENCE OF A MURDERER

James A. Thompson, first deputy clerk of the Judiciary, remained over on Hawaii for a fortnight's vacation after the Kohala term. Writing to Henry Smith, clerk of the Judiciary, under date of Waimea, Aug. 2, Mr. Thompson says:

"On last Saturday morning the grand jury filed their report finding two indictments, one in Territory v. Nishida Yochi, defendant indicted for murder in the first degree, and the other in Territory v. Watanabe, defendant indicted for assault and battery with a weapon."

"On Monday Nishida Yochi pleaded not guilty to the indictment for murder but later on withdrew his plea of not guilty."

Kenneth Cameron, late of Hilo, walked into the police station yesterday to complain about being defrauded of some money just as the police were looking for him on a charge of having defrauded some one else of money. The story he told the police has also led to the arrest for investigation of two others, one Charles Donahue, a hack-driver with a somewhat shady reputation, and the other a crap shooter, Loma by name.

Cameron is accused of having committed a gross cheat in Hilo, getting away with $190 in cash. Word to that effect and a request for his arrest was sent from the Hawaii sheriff yesterday to Sheriff Iaukea. Cameron was unknown to the police and just as Chief Taylor was issuing instructions to his specials to go out and locate the man, he walked in with a statement that Donahue had driven off with $109 left in his custody and had disappeared. He was held and the dragnet was thrown out for the hackdriver. He, after being brought in, stated that he had no money, having been gambling all day with Loma and dropped his wad. This led to a search for Loma, who was arrested and searched, seventy-eight dollars being found on him.

Not guilty to murder in the first degree and pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree, and on Tuesday morning he was sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor.

"In Territory v. Watanabe a jury trial was had and defendant was found guilty and was sentenced to two years at hard labor. There was another jury trial and that was of Territory against two Koreans, who were defended by Mr. Maydwell and were found not guilty."

"The last case heard was that of M. F. Scott v. Frank Gouveia. It was tried jury waived and the argument was deferred for three weeks. At the conclusion of this hearing the court adjourned sine die."

CHILCOTT AND ROSECRANS.

The Associated Oil Company's steamer Rosecrans, Captain MacDonald, with the American ship Marion Chilcott, Captain Olson, in tow, arrived yesterday shortly after noon. It is the first time that the Chilcott has been towed down here from the Coast, and it was only done in the present case in order that the oil supply in this city might be replenished immediately. The Chilcott is one of the smartest sailers which visits this port and under her own sail comes down in an average of fourteen days. Both vessels brought large cargoes of oil for this city.

RECEPTION GAY AFFAIR

(From Sunday's Advertiser.)

The throne room of the Executive Building, for so long closed so far as social affairs of the Territory are concerned, was the gathering spot of society once more last night at the reception given by Governor and Mrs. Carter to Mr. and Mrs. Longworth and Secretary and Mrs. Straus, at which several hundred citizens were present to the distinguished guests. The grounds were brightly illuminated by hundreds of colored incandescent lights, under which, to the music of the Royal Hawaiian Band, some thousand more citizens strolled, despite the dampness of the evening. The Capitol was decorated along the balconies with more colored lights, in the center of which blazed the Stars and Stripes. Within, flowers had been lavishly used for decorations, white daisies and ferns being placed with splendid effect on the main stairway, and potted ferns, palms and other plants transforming the landings and alcoves into green bowers.

In the throne room, where the presentations were made, an aisle had been partitioned off around the room by wreaths of malle and fern, the receiving party standing on the Ewa side of the room. On the balcony behind them was stationed the Ellis Quartet, which played during the reception.

In the receiving line, in the order named, were Governor Carter, Mrs. Carter, Secretary Straus, Mrs. Longworth, Congressman Longworth and Mrs. Straus, the introductions being made by Secretary Atkinson. The ladies of the party were richly gowned. Mrs. Carter wore white satin, embroidered with roses and real lace, and carried a bouquet of white and pink roses. The costume worn by Mrs. Longworth was a most becoming creation of steel blue satin, and Mrs. Straus' gown was of white lace.

The officers of the National Guard assisted in the reception, their uniforms giving a touch of color to the groups of the members of the sterner sex which gathered in the main hall. National Guardsmen were stationed also at the doors to see that the lines of those to be presented were duly marshaled before entering the throne room.

Before nine o'clock the automobiles and carriages began to arrive at the Capitol with the members of Honolulu society, a solid lane of people extending from the King street entrance to the palace steps to watch the arrivals. The automobile bringing Mr. and Mrs. Longworth and Secretary Atkinson was a few minutes late and drove up at a speed that made people shiver as it spun around on the wet flags before the steps. It seemed to the watchers that the machine must skid and crash into the steps, but the driver handled his machine most skillfully and nothing unfortunate occurred.

Among those who had the honor of being presented were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cooke, Consul General Saito and Mrs. Saito, Chinese Consul Chang Tso Fan and Madame Chang Tso Fan; F. A. Schaefer, Italian Consul, and Miss Irmgard Schaefer; Count Canavarro, Portuguese Consul; Dr. Marques, French Consul; W. F. Protenhauer, German Consul, and Mrs. Protenhauer; Chief Justice and Mrs. Frear, Justice Hartwell and Miss Hartwell, Prince and Princess Kawanakakoa, Bishop Libert, Father Valentin, Canon Mackintosh, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Breckons, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Wilder, F. M. Hatch and Miss Harriet Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Jack London, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Ivers, Mr. and Mrs. Kanakaku, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, Sherwood Lowrey, Allan Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. C. Rhodes, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes Jr., Senator John C. Lane, Sheriff Iaukea, Joseph Fern, S. M. Dwight, E. R. Stackable, Mrs. Gunn and Miss Edna Gunn, Miss Waltz, Miss Alice Moore, Misses Rose, Rev. Hiram Bingham, Miss Walker, Miss Angus, Miss Sturgeon, Miss Kaufmann, J. H. Fisher, Lloyd Conkling, James Holt, C. S. Holloway, George Beckley and John Lucas.

The members of the three Hawaiian societies, the Hui Kaahumanu, Hui Kaulaekouli and Hui Olui, to the number of nearly four hundred, were presented, the guests of honor having pleasant greetings for the native sons and daughters of Hawaii.

Much credit is due Miss Dwight and Miss Crewes, of the government service, who had charge of the floral decorations of the Capitol and whose artistic arrangement of the materials was much admired.

Following the reception, the guests of honor and a few other invited guests were the guests of the Governor and Mrs. Carter at dinner at the Young Hotel.

GEAR WILL SAIL ON THE INDIANA

Attorney A. V. Gear will personally conduct the Indiana Japanese into Canada, having decided that it will be best for him to see the emigrants through and secure first hand information of the condition of affairs in Vancouver, in order to figure on the second trip of the vessel, if one be deemed advisable. It was stated in one of the local Japanese papers yesterday that the fact that Gear would sail on the Indiana helped to make up their minds to attempt the Canadian experiment in spite of the repeated warning from Vancouver of the fate of the Kumeric immigrants.

Mrs. Mist, Miss Edith Mist and Robert Mist are guests at the Volcano House, having sailed for Hawaii on Tuesday. Although Mrs. Mist is one of the kamaiinas of the Territory this is her first visit to the volcano.
